

PRESCHOOL NEWSLETTER

October 27, 2019

JESUS' TIME -- The children loved learning about Joshua this week. God's children marched around the city of Jericho 7 times, and blew the trumpets, and shouted. Then God made the city walls come tumbling down!

FALL is such a fun time of the year! We continue to learn about all kinds of things, like pumpkins, spiders, and why the leaves turn colors in the fall.

HALLOWEEN CLASS PARTIES THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31:

Each preschool class will have its own class party from 10-11:15. Please have your child come to school in their non-scary costume that day. Please, no zombies, weapons, witches or gore. Remember, if the character typically hurts people, it is not appropriate for this event. Here are some ideas to get you started: Animals, storybook characters, pumpkins and superheroes. At 11:00 A.M., the preschoolers will meet by the gym to begin the costume parade past all the classrooms and offices. Our parties will end at 11:15. If your child is not enrolled on Thursdays, but would like to come to the party, you may bring your child at 10 A.M., and stay with him/her for the duration of the party. Please let your child's teacher know in advance if you are bringing your child to the party, so we know what our numbers will be.

VETERANS DAY SERVICE: NOVEMBER 11 AT 11:00. Coffee and rolls will be provided at 10:00 in the church entrance. Service starts at 11:00 and will last approximately ½ hour. If your child is not normally enrolled on Mondays, and would like to sing with us, you may bring your child to the church at 11:00, and stay for the service.

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK is November 4-10! 2019 marks the 100th anniversary of Children's Book Week. The 100th Anniversary theme — Read Now · Read Forever — looks to the past, present, and most important, the future of children's books. The preschoolers will celebrate this event with guest readers and a visit from the local library, ending with a pep rally on November 8. Do you have a favorite picture book you would like to share with our preschoolers? Talk to your child's teacher to sign up as a guest reader that week. We would like to have readers at either the 9:00 or 11:15 circle times.
