Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

We really see the heart of our Lord, Jesus Christ, in His longing for those who remain separated from Him as recorded in a number of places in the Gospels:

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing." (Matthew 23:37)

"When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field." (Matthew 9:36-38)

The Lord also informs us that the reason the world has not yet ended is for the sake of those who still remain separated from Him:

"The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance." (2 Peter 3:9)

We have been called not only to pray for workers in the harvest field but to be those workers in the harvest field. God daily sets up the opportunities for us to witness to those around us. Especially, if we pray for the opportunity, be sure that the Lord will provide the opportunities. It could be in an unexpected phone call; visiting with a cashier at a local store; helping someone cross a street; the passenger sitting beside you on an airplane; a telemarketer; someone coming to your door to witness a false god to you; scouts asking for donations; a waitress at a restaurant; your car serviceman . . . The list is unending. You may be the one whom God has intentionally put in front of these people for the specific purpose of witnessing to them. By the way, witnessing involves a lot of listening; hearing their story and then beginning from where they are to bring them where God would want them to be. The Lord models this for us many times. One of my favorites is the woman at the well (John 4:1-42).

I think that we fail to appreciate, sometimes, how blessed we are to live in faith; to live in God's favor and with all of the security He provides to us. Most people, including your co-workers and neighbors, do not live with security. Apart from security is worry and fear at extreme levels. It is no wonder that so many people are stressed out to the limits. I can't imagine facing each day with the seemingly overwhelming news that we hear locally, nationally, and internationally. This world, due to sin, is a very evil, dangerous and dark place. How blessed we are to live in the Light of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ Who has established total security in our lives. We know by God's promises that He is our refuge, our strength, a present help in trouble, our Counselor, our Lord, our Savior Who died for our sins and our Victor Who has won for us victory over even death! He assures us that nothing is impossible for Him. We are blessed to know, trust and believe that He is always with us, always looking out for us, always protecting us and always guiding us to the extent, by His promise, that He will not allow anyone or anything to separate us from Him! It is so easy for us to assume that this is the normal way of life for most people on this earth. The very opposite is the truth; we are not the norm. We are blessed.

In considering how blessed you are by God, may this be the motive to share the blessing with everyone God provides to you. This requires that we are attentive to what God is doing. Have you ever noticed that when you are looking for a particular model of vehicle you start seeing that particular car all over the place? Why is that? The reason is because you are now focused and concentrating on that particular model of car. Prior to this, there were probably hundreds of these particular vehicles that were in your sight but you paid no attention to them. God desires that we would be so focused upon His will; particularly His will for us to witness to unbelievers around us. Begin by listening. When you listen to a stranger and really are interested in what they have to share they are going to be much more open to hear what you have to say. Listen for how they share feelings of insecurity with you. Approach them with the Gospel at the point of their insecurity so that you can reveal to them how the Lord changes things. Connect them with people who can help them through whatever issues they currently face. It is so important to remember this great quote from Theodore Roosevelt:

"People do not care how much you know until they know how much you care."

As God's people, caring for others should be our great strength based upon our Lord's caring for us! May God bless you and me as we strive to be a blessing to those around us with the hope that they too would come to know and trust in Christ.

Have a blessed summer,

Pastor Greg

From the Desk of our President

Dear Trinity family,

It's summer! I know the weather had us fooled for a while, but I think it is actually here! A quick update on the aftermath of the severe spring weather we had. First, the school gym floor is OKAY! The quick response of volunteers the night of the storm contributed greatly to the saving of the gym floor. Thank you, everyone. We have had specialists inspect the floor and it is good to go. In a year or two, they suggest we have it resealed, but otherwise it is in good shape! The school roof has been repaired and the carpets that got wet from the storm, have been cleaned. Our deductible was much lower than expected (by almost half). God is amazing!

We have a very busy summer planned here at Trinity. In addition to what looks to be an awesome Vacation Bible School, (I am writing this the week before VBS, as I will be traveling for the next couple of weeks) we will be very busy moving and expanding classrooms for the Early Childhood Center, the K - 8 School, and we will also be cleaning and organizing our Sunday School rooms. We need a lot of help! Please join us throughout the summer on the planned work days listed below, or let us know when you can help and we will find things for you to do! It is so exciting to be preparing for our future, our growth.

If you want to help you can contact me, Debi, Kyle, Angela, Les, Kristi, Kevin.

The School work days are:

Monday, July 3rd

Friday, July 7th

Saturday, July 8th

Saturday, July 22nd

Something new, we have a security team. A group of members are taking turns on Sunday mornings before worship service, to check all the doors are secured. They are watching the "comings and goings" and the parking lot during the services as well so we can all feel secure. Thank you to those who are volunteering for this duty. We have had a couple of scares recently when team members have found doors open and unlocked. Please make sure Debi in the church office knows when you are going to be using the facility and that you secure the premises when you leave! Please help keep us all safe and double check the doors are locked and closed completely.

Have a wonderful summer filled with God's blessings!

Cheri

Worship

Submitted by Larry Whitney
Pastoral Assistant

But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. John 4:23

Then Jesus said to him, "Be gone, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.'" Matthew 4:10

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. Matthew 5:6

Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! Know that the LORD, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Psalm 100:2-3

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness;
for they shall be filled.

—Matthew 5:6

God has a wonderful plan for our lives, and an important part of that plan includes worship. We should never deceive ourselves: every life is based upon some form of worship. The question is not whether we worship, but what we worship.

Some choose to worship God. The result is a plentiful harvest of joy, peace, and abundance. Others distance themselves from God by foolishly worshiping earthly possessions and personal gratification. To do so is a mistake of profound proportions.

Have you accepted the grace of God's only begotten Son? Then worship Him today and every day. Worship Him with sincerity and thanksgiving. Write His name on your heart and rest assured that He, too, has written your name on His.

A Note from the Editor: History intrigues me. It doesn't really matter what kind of history. Greek Mythology. America history, including Indians, gold rush, Civil War, presidents, entertainers and cars. European history, Dark Ages, the Crusades, Russian Czars are all exciting. Biblical history tops them all. I was delighted to have the opportunity this spring to make the drive to Fort Morgan with family and friends to experience "The Tabernacle". In my mind, the Tabernacle that the Israelites carried through the wilderness with them, had to be "HUGE". After all it is recorded in Exodus that 600,000 fighting men along with their families left Egypt, crossed the Red Sea and entered the Wilderness. Biblical scholars suggest that one in four Israelites were counted in that number, which means there could easily have been 2.4 million Israelites wandering in the Wilderness. "HUGE", right? This replica was made to the exact measurements as outlined by God in Exodus. Immediately, it was obvious that the enormity was in God's presence rather than the physical size of the structure. Reverently, the narrator guided visitors through the stations of worship; why each were there and how through the life and death of Jesus Christ they were all satisfied for each of us, today. Studying history can be both exhilarating and painful, especially when it comes to personal history. Then there is the conflicting points of view. A history teacher will tell you "history is important because if we don't learn from the past, we are doomed to repeat it." (The Israelites should have listen to that one.) While a caring parent may tell there child who has been hurt, "you have to move on, if you live in the past, you will miss the present and the future." Both statements have value. Certainly when I examine my own history, there were exhilarating moments of accomplishment, success, joy and happiness. There are also times of loss, failure, and tremendous pain. Examining our history can be one of Satan's traps. He sucks us into second guessing our decisions, wanting us to play the "what if" game, and encouraging us to be afraid. Telling us that because we failed, because we lost, because it hurt, we should be afraid and not try things that are new or different and to let go of things we enjoy. He wants us isolated and alone, we are easier pick in's that way. The REAL history lesson here is that we all fall short, we all fail to keep God's law. That is why God sent His One and Only Son, Jesus Christ to lay down His life for us on the cross, shedding His blood and washing away our sins, clothing us in righteousness.

"a righteous man will be remembered forever. He will have no fear of bad news; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD." Psalm 112:6 b-7 Trust in the LORD.

EDUCATION

Happy July, everyone!

The middle of June brought us to Vacation Bible School. VBS was a wonderful, busy week! The Bible accounts of Jericho, King Hezekiah, King Josiah, and - of course - King Jesus were told again to the children with activities, games, crafts, and snacks. Between 45 and 48 children heard the good news every day that in God, "the victory is won!" A big thank you goes out to all of those who helped, either during the week or behind the scenes before the event, especially our VBS Director, Kristen Meritt. Next year's theme has been announced to be "Splash Canyon" and it looks to be just as fun!

Beginning Sunday, July 9th, all youth are encouraged to come together for a NEW Bible study during the Sunday School hour (beginning at 9:20 on Sunday mornings) entitled "That's in the Bible?!" Show up for some hot beverages, courtesy of our very own coffee bar down in the youth room, and learn all about when Jacob wrestled an angel that dislocated his hip, when God made a donkey talk, when a woman named Jael ran a tent peg through the head of a sleeping enemy soldier (ew!) - all of the weird, gross, or creepy accounts in the Bible you may not have heard of before!

Also on the schedule:

Monday, July 10th AND Monday, July 24th: All Youth bowling at Chipper's Lanes (2454 8th Ave in here Greeley) Kids (18 and under) bowl free two times a week all summer if you sign up at kidsbowlfree.com beforehand! All you need to bring is money for shoe rental (and for snacks if you want them)! Let's meet there at 3:00 pm for some fun!

Mom's Bible Boost will resume on Tuesday, July 11th! Meet at 11:00 am at Sanborn Park! The kids will play while moms go through our "God Loves Moms" Bible study. Please join us - and if you would like, bring a picnic lunch for you and your crew to enjoy! Talk to DCE Angela Erickson if you have any questions.

Saturday, July 22nd: All Youth BBQ at the Erickson home
Bring a side or dessert to share and come to hang out. Begins at 5:30 pm, ends...?
(Address: 723 47th Ave Ct here in Greeley)

Sunday, July 30th: Youth Sunday at 8:00 and 10:30 worship services
Please help us participate in the worship services as greeters, ushers, and Scripture readers!

Please email me at AErickson@tlgreeley.com if you have any questions about these events, AND to let me know if you / your youth will be attending!

School Happenings

Principal Kyle Erickson

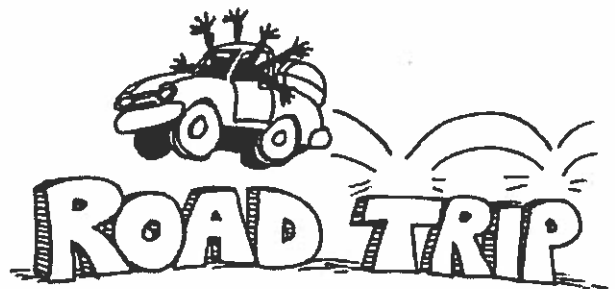

Greetings,

The number for this month is 4,157!!! Before we get into that, I want to take you down memory lane, to your childhood days. Think back to some of your earliest memories of FAMILY VACATIONS. None of this airplane stuff, I'm talking miles and miles of coloring books, license plate hunting, I'm thirsty, potty breaking, napping, I'm hungry - quality family time spent together on the road... You guessed it, 4,157 is the number of miles the Erickson Tribe will be traveling throughout the end of June and the beginning of July. It's ok to call us a little crazy, I would partially agree with you. So why do we put ourselves through the rigmarole? There are multiple answers that question, however, at the top would be family. When we talk about families, we talk about those that we related to through lineage and we also talk about those belonging to the body of Christ. Along with these family members comes a strong support group. We are very grateful Trinity Lutheran Church and School and all of the love shared with us. "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another" (John 13:34-35)

What a crazy summer with transitions, I think the hallways speak for themselves. Thanks to all who are able to donate time and money in getting the classrooms equipped and ready for the new school year.

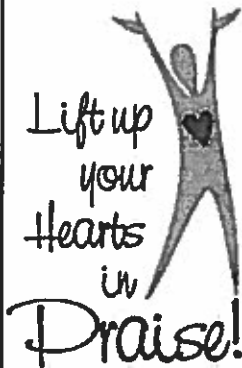

With summer comes Pork Chops on a Stick. If you have not tried one there is still time. We will be serving them at the Farm Show, Arts Picnic, and at our very own Pickers Paradise.

In His Peace,
Kyle Erickson

First things, first...Praise and thanksgiving to God for His blessings through the generosity of our Trinity family! About a month ago, we put out a request for help purchasing furniture for our new toddler room. To date, You, Trinity, have donated all of the requested items except the table and chairs and 2 out of the 6 shelving units. Thank you Trinity, for your continued commitment to our program, our mission of reaching preschool children and their families to share the Good News!

A lot of changes have been taking place at the school. I like to say that all of the "stuff" in the hallways is God working. I would like to say thank you to everyone who has volunteered to help with the new classrooms, your time is appreciated.

Throughout this expansion process, I'm reminded of the story of the 5,000. I relate well with how the disciples worried how they were going to feed so many but as more children walk through our doors, I'm watching God bless this school in many ways. It's very exciting!

We have begun our Summer Camp with many new and fun activities such as special guests from the library, fire department, and the train museum. The kids have also enjoyed having a coach from Amazing Athletes join us once a week to teach us about different sports, muscles and about growing foods. (Foods that help our bodies grow)

Our teachers are gearing up for the new year by attending training and getting rooms ready.

In the fall we will begin a lunch program, Ms. Susie has planted the garden and will use vegetables from the garden to make delicious hot lunches for students pre-8th grade.

Your prayers are always appreciated
