

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our 2018-2019 school year is winding down. Like a roller coaster, we've experienced ups and downs, unexpected twists and turns, some "throwing up" (no names mentioned), and it all of a sudden comes to a screeching halt. Like most thrillers, you exit the roller coaster and immediately start reflecting upon the ride. As we reach this time of year, I can help but to reflect upon the memories made, the friendships developed, and the lessons learned.

Thank you for being a part of this school ministry and for entrusting your kids in our care.

God's richest blessings upon you this summer.

Kyle Erickson
