A Wordless Prayer

Submitted by Larry Whitney
Pastoral Assistant

When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be healed?" John 5:6

Are elaborate, well-spoken prayers more likely to be answered? Not necessarily. Sincere prayer may consist of many words, a few words, or none at all.

Jesus visited a well-known pool near one of Jerusalem's gates. The place was called Bethesda, literally a house of mercy. From time to time an angel would touch the water, and the first to plunge in afterward would be cured of his/her affliction. So people with various handicaps such as paralysis or blindness would lie there, waiting to be healed.

Jesus approached a man who had lain beside the pool for 38 years and asked if he wanted to get well. The patient could have said, "Of course I do! Why else do you think I'm here?" But he answered Jesus, who was unknown to him, with respect: "Sir ... I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me" (John 5:7). The man had not spoken words of prayer, but Jesus knew the man's desire. He said, "Get up, take up your bed, and walk" (John 5:8). Immediately the man got up and walked.

Sincere prayer may consist of many words, a few words, or none at all. "Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God" (Romans 8:26-27).

Our Lord knows what is in our hearts when in faith we come to Him with words or without.

PRAYER SUGGESTION: Give thanks to the Lord Jesus for being your Physician in body and soul.

In His Service,
Larry A. Whitney
Pastoral Assistant

School Happenings

Preschool & K-8

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we planned for this new school year, we looked for additional ways to re-enforce the spiritual learning that takes place in our classrooms at Trinity. Many of our students do not have a family church home, so Trinity is providing much of their spiritual nurture. For the families who are active in a Christian congregation, what we do supports the spiritual life of their family.

Some of the things we added were simple. We include "Luther's Morning Prayer" with the morning announcements over the intercom, so the whole school has time together in prayer as we start each school day (most individual classes were doing this prayer on their own as part of their morning routine). So that children learn more hymns, we are including a "hymn of the month" to what we sing in chapel, choosing something from LSB. Our September hymn was "Holy, Holy, Holy."

At our September open house for school families, Pastor and Lindy greeted each family as they arrived. Pastor was able to recruit several families interested in learning more about Lutheran doctrine and the Christian faith; he has a class beginning in late September. Pastor and Mr. Larry are also teaching some of the upper-grade religion this school year, so our students become more acquainted with our church staff. One of these students has joined the confirmation class.

We have also been able to start conversations with a few families about baptism. We rejoice with third-grader Ayden Cook and his family as Ayden was baptized during chapel on September 18.

"Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." (1 Thess. 5:16-18). This is our theme and focus this year. These words are not just for our daily classroom worship time, religion class, chapel or preschool "Jesus Time." The Spirit opens doors during recess and lunch and drop-off time and throughout the day. Parent teacher conferences are October 7 & 8 and these meetings often provide openings to address spiritual issues. The staff gathers for time in the Word and prayer each morning to equip ourselves for the day, but we ask that you keep us to your prayers as we minister to these children and their families. The staff will also have time to focus on our ministry at the Rocky Mountain District Professional Workers' Conference in Breckenridge the second week of October. This year's theme is "Uncharted: Ministry off the Map." The elementary teachers plus Mrs. Mary and Miss Marshall will be privileged to attend.

WATCH YOUR BULLETIN: The annual Fall Festival is scheduled for October 26. The event is hosted by the PTL; as this newsletter went to print, details were still being finalized. Know that there will for sure be games for children of all ages and a chili cook-off. Know that there will also be lots of volunteers needed to put together the event. Watch for those details in the Sunday bulletin as the date gets closer.

BUTTER BRAIDS ARE COMING: Sales will begin October 14. All orders must be submitted by November 1. Your tasty treats will arrive before Thanksgiving. Last year's very successful sale paid for the new sand-play area on the preschool playground.

A cause to celebrate: Trinity Lutheran Church & School was listed as the #2 best childcare center in the recent "Best of Greeley" published by the Greeley Tribune. I think this is a tribute to our hard-working and very talented preschool/childcare staff. It is good to have our efforts publicly acknowledged in the community.

Help us with our Scholarship Fundraising Campaign!

October is Reformation month. More than 500 years ago, God used Martin Luther to call the church back to His Word. In today's world, we can see how important that mission was and still is, as we look at a broken world far from God and His Word. Our school is a mission. It is a place where God's Word is taught and implemented. Many of our families are unchurched, but they are drawn to Trinity by God's hand. If God has sent them to us, how can we turn them away because of money? When a family is offered assistance, they agree to dedicate a set amount of hours in community service for our campus. This year we have nine families who need assistance and five of those students need a full scholarship. Our goal, this year, is to raise $35,000 for the scholarship fund to assist these families who have entrusted us at Trinity with their precious children. Please prayerfully consider giving to the Scholarship Fund. Every dollar you give will go to pay a student's tuition, continuing the work that God has given us to do!

Mark your calendar to see the remaining short presentations before the service, and the final State of the School Presentation between services.

TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

WE SURPASSED OUR GOAL—

Thank you Trinity! The Baby Bottle Campaign donations this year were $2,869, a 44% increase from last year. Community donations from 60 churches were $120,409. Your donations have helped many women faced with a choice during an unplanned pregnancy, many fathers faced with fear of the future, and most of all, the babies who are powerless and have no voice. Thank you for generously opening your hearts and offering your prayers for this important mission - rescuing babies and reflecting the love of Jesus to their parents. Elaine Jecminek

(8 Weeks) duration.

Book - Do Yourself a Favor Forgive - by Joyce Meyer
Meeting Time - Once a week, Tuesday mornings 9:30am - 11:30am
Host - Home of Donna Hanselmann (you should have her address)
Leader - Lindy Hafeman

Sign up by contacting Lindy Hafeman (970) 686-6881, emailing lindyhaf@comcast.net or Facebook Friend her.

In an effort to keep the space comfortable, intimate and "small group" in nature, it will be limited to the first twelve women who sign up. Please purchase your book by going to Amazon or Book Store of your choosing. Please have your book by October 29th when you come to the first meeting.

Staying angry at someone who has hurt you is like taking poison and hoping that your enemy will die. Our un-forgiveness hurts us more than it does anyone else. In this book Joyce delves into the issue of anger, exposing the roots, the forms of anger, the disastrous results of living with anger, and finally the process of forgiving. We understand that life is not fair, but in spite of that, we don't have to let anger destroy our happiness and our health. Come learn what she learned and be better equipped with God's Words and blueprint on how to have peace while on earth as best you can.

YOUR NAME

Trinity Name Tags!

A friendly reminder of the importance of wearing your Trinity name tag.

- 1) We have visitors and new families that come to worship with us and it is nice for them to see your name as you introduce yourself to them. It helps them remember names and faces so they feel more comfortable at Trinity and want to return.
- 2) New members at Trinity-it's easy for us, there is only one of them, so we can easily say, 'Oh, that the new members' Whatstheirname, but the new members have to learn a couple hundred names.
- 3) Then there are members like me, I know who you are and I know your name, but right this moment when I want to talk to you, I can't think of it, Anna, no, Ashley, no, Amanda?

Have you lost or miss placed your name tag? Are you a newer member and you don't have a name tag? Look for the sign up sheet in the narthex and give us your name and a contact phone number. Please print clearly, we wouldn't want to misspell your name!

Our NEW combined Church and School Website is up and running. Go to tlsgreeley.org to check it out! Why? There is a lot of good information on the website. You can find the current church calendar, Trinity Tidings Newsletters, both the current month and an archive of older ones all the way back to August of 2016! Sunday sermons are also available from the current Sunday back to September of 2016! Maybe you really enjoyed a particular sermon and want to hear it again, or you missed a Sunday and want to hear the sermon, you can on the website! A new feature is a “Give Now” button where you can give your Sunday offering even if you are in Timbuctoo, as long as you have internet to access the website. If you have any comments or concerns, feel free to send them to office@tlsgreeley.com. Go explore!

Note from the Editor: I can remember the crackling of dried leaves beneath my feet as I crossed the yard of my childhood home, the cool crisp morning air as I walked to catch the school bus, Walther League hayrides and High School homecomings. October is a great time to enjoy outdoor activities before weather becomes an adversary. Then of course, there is the celebration of All Hallows Eve, not one of my favorite October things. Why is it that some people like to be scared? Not me. When my second husband joined our family, he introduced my children to pumpkin carving, jack-o-lanterns and other Halloween activities. He insisted they pick their own pumpkins, but not from a grocery store, that was cheating. He took them to a pumpkin patch. Going to the pumpkin patch became a tradition that continued even after our kids had kids. He also encouraged them to find ways to create their own costumes from things they already had. One year my oldest son wore black sweatpants and sweat shirt, put gray duck tape down the center of his body and went as a highway. I think my biggest aversion to Halloween is the masquerading. Sadly, in this broken world, too many of us hide behind masks in our daily lives, afraid of what this world thinks of us. People young and old struggle everyday with who they are and whether they are liked and loved. Others may mask their pain and suffering or secrets from their past. Satan is constantly tempting us to lose sight of our true identity. Sometimes it's hard to remember that this world is temporary. Our family, friends and even our enemies will pass away. But not God. Our true identity is that of a child of God. He is always with us. He loves us unconditionally. So much so, that He sent His One and Only Son to suffer and die the death that we each deserve for our sins. May our true identity as a child of God never be masked as we celebrate God's unconditional love for us. May we reach out with the same mercy that God shows us that others may find security in God's love to find and reveal their true identity.

“But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved.” Ephesians 2:4-5

Daniel 2:20-21 says:

"13 → be to the 11 → of 4 → for 12 → and 12 →
5 → and 7 → are 14 → He 10 → and 8 → 3 →
He 15 → 11 → 9 → 2 → them.
He gives 5 → to the 6 → 16 → to the 2 →"

Answer: "Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever; wisdom and power are his. He changes times and seasons; He sets up kings and deposes them. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning."
