Prepare Your Hearts in the Season of Lent

PLACES of the PASSION

10 am & 6:30 pm Services

Journey with our Savior, exploring the spiritual relevance of key points along the path of Christ's passion in this series of six services for Lent.

The places where the passion of our Lord took place hold special meaning to Christians the world over. These places remind us that Jesus walked this Earth and stood in locations we can still find today to carry out his mission of salvation. This was no sightseeing trip for our Savior. There was a serious reason he came to be at certain places and at particular times to suffer and die and rise again. He was fulfilling the will of his Father who desired that we be forgiven and given a place in heaven with him forever.

Mite Devotions

Program: Bible Study "All Things Through Christ"

Hostess: Karen Langhorn & Karen Rutt

Mission Project: LWML Mites

MITE SUNDAY-March 7th: The first Sunday of each month the Mite box will be available for you to bring your Mites. (suggestion put your coin in a zip lock bag - keep your mite box).

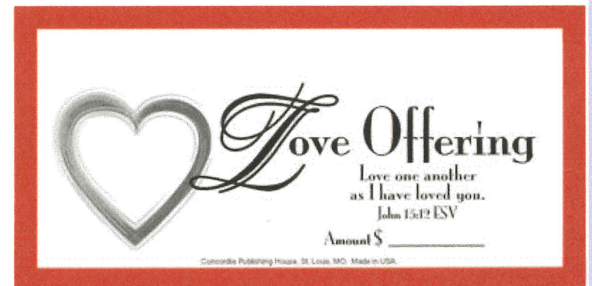

Mite Offerings Update

We praise God for generous Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) women and all gracious donors! LWML's mite offerings as of January 31, 2021, total $2,046,341.69, which leaves $53,658.31 left to reach our 2019-2021 LWML Mission Goal of $2,100,000 before our fiscal year-end on March 31, 2021. There are three mission grants remaining to be funded in this biennium. LWML thanks God and encourages you to continue collecting your mite offerings.

EASTER LOVE OFFERING-

Every year around this time, the Easter Love Offering Envelope shows up in our box of giving envelopes.

These envelopes are designed as an additional giving envelope, a gift of "Love" during the Lent Season. It is at this time that we are reminded just how much we are loved by our Heavenly Father. Loved so much, that He sent His One and Only Son, Jesus Christ to pay the price for our sins by laying down His life on the cross. He became the ultimate sacrifice, His blood the atonement for our sins.

Each year, these envelopes are collected by the LWML ladies who choose a project to direct these offerings towards. Over the past years, the LWML has used the Easter Love Offerings to: refurbish the kitchen in the Church Fellowship Hall; to cover a large portion on the cost of reupholstering the pews in our sanctuary; provide extra money for the completion of the finishing of the second floor of the school. This year the LWML is dedicating the Easter Love Offerings towards the eventual replacement of the front doors of the church. They anticipate that this may take more than one year to collect enough funds. Please prayerfully consider giving to this worthwhile project. Place your contribution in the "Easter Love Offering" envelope and drop it in the offering plate on Sunday morning, anytime between now and Easter Sunday.

A Note from Our Church President

Trinity Family,

This congregation has been through some trying times, but it is amazing to see God's blessings as we work through the challenges. One of those blessings is the support that you as a congregation voted unanimously to extend to Luke Kunze in his application for the SMP (Special Ministry Pastor) program. We ask that you hold Luke and his family up in prayer as he begins this journey.

The search continues for an IIP since Pastor Cartwright has declined our call. We are working on reviewing other potential IIP candidates as well as other options for our path forward. We know that there is an air of uncertainty at this time. I want you to have confidence that the church leadership is working with the district to ensure that this congregation is taken care of. We are blessed that Pastor Schnegelberger is working with us to help out while we finalize our plans on moving forward.

As we proceed, please know that there are items of concern that need to be addressed as a congregation. Some of that includes communication within the congregation. We ask for your grace and understanding as we navigate the processes that are involved in calling a new pastor outside of a planned time.

The Elders are always here to assist where needed and Pastor Schnegelberger is also assisting us for this time to ensure that you, as members, whether you are able to attend on Sundays or online, or simply able to be in touch through the Tidings, are taken care of. If you are in need of Pastoral care, you can always call the office at 970-330-2485 or Pastor Schnegelberger directly at 303-775-6556.

Please let us know of your needs. We look forward to a time that we are back together fully, and not separated by the concerns of this pandemic. We continually pray for everyone's health and ask for your prayers for wisdom in our path forward.

Your brother in Christ,

Michael Thuener
Congregational President

Director of Christian Education

Greetings and happy March! Spring is just around the corner! (Right? Or maybe we'll have another of our infamous Spring Break blizzards!) Spring in Colorado is always very unpredictable, but then again, nothing about life is really predictable, especially life this past year.

Certainly not many could have predicted what happened to our Savior when He set His face towards Jerusalem (Luke 9:51) two thousand years ago – no one but Him. He knew the suffering and humiliation He would endure in His arrest and crucifixion – and He knew how the weekend would end: with His triumphant resurrection and victory over sin, death, and the devil. While we walk through this Lenten season of 2021, we are once again reminded of our worldly uncertainties but most of all we are reminded that it was our sin that sent Jesus to the cross, and we hold tightly to the knowledge that Easter is coming, that our salvation has been secured.

We hope your family is enjoying the “Lent in a Box” packages. Filled with devotions, activities, and suggestions for members and families of all types, ages, and sizes, these are still available!

Note from the Editor: This week I had one of those “how did I get here?” moments. I guess it’s appropriate during this season of penitence on our journey through Lent, that one reflects on their life; the good, the bad, the ups, and the downs. There are many circumstances that can lead me to one of those moments. Being one who wants to do the “right thing” can lead to indecisiveness while trying to figure out that “right thing”. There is that internal dialogue of “should I do this first or that? Which way should I turn? Should I have spent that money?” From time to time I can get obsessed with following the “rules”, because for me, that is the “right thing” to do. I get frustrated with others, (whether that is the leaders of our government or my neighbor or my relatives) when they treat the rules more like “suggested guidelines”. Sometimes I feel isolated and alone. Other times I try to control more of the things around me, holding on to those “rules”. Sometimes I get angry and every little thing makes me want to scream!! That is when I ask God, “How did I get here, Lord? This is not who I am. This is not who you want me to be. I’ve messed up, again. Help me.” The good news is, God has been with me in every twist and turn of my life. He knew them ahead of time. He knew the choices I would make along the way, both good ones and bad ones, before I even knew there was a choice. He knows my innermost being, because He made me. He knows every thought—ahead of time—is intimately present in my life and will get me where I need to be. No matter how many wrong turns I think I have made or continue to make, He knows where I am and where I am going. He knows my past, my present and my future. I will trust Him as He continues to lead me on the path He has chosen for me. May you find a peacefulness in your heart when you reflect on your life, knowing that God knows you from your inner most being. May you know God’s love for you and that He will never leave you, even when you wonder how you got where you are. “O LORD, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O LORD, you know it altogether.” Psalm 139:1-4

School Happenings

Preschool & K-8

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Holy Spirit has been very active, especially during our Wednesday chapel services. We celebrated three baptisms throughout the month of February, this makes five for the school year, with another three to come. "Praise God from whom all blessings flow!"

It is hard to believe, but we are entering our third and final trimester for the school year! With that, we are now taking registration applications for the 2021-2022 school year. There are brochures available in the church narthex for you to help get the word out. Invite your friends and neighbors to schedule a tour.

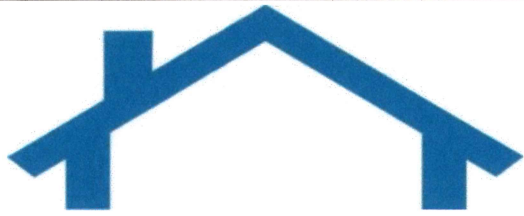

March is the month for spring break, which is scheduled for March 15th through the 19th. With the COVID carousel, it will be nice to have a planned break. Our staff has continued to work hard to keep students on-site. With that, the Trinity staff is now available to get their vaccine shots if they choose. We ask for continued prayers for good health and safety for all of our Trinity families.

There are a lot of great things happening at our school. We are at the point where we are ready to become fully accredited. There was a presentation given this past January in regards to National Lutheran Schools Accreditation. We are going to need volunteers, and lots of them. If you would like to help, be looking for a Sign-Up Genius link which will be emailed out. A hard copy of the sign-up sheet will be posted in the church narthex. We had to adjust our timeline just a bit, but we are still looking to assemble the steering committee and sub committees. With this being such a transitional time for Trinity, we look forward to using this accreditation process to better assess our needs, areas to improve, and all of the blessings in which God has provided for us.

Sent to Serve,
Director Gwen Marshall
Principal Kyle Erickson

Trinity, the pandemic has taken a huge toll on our homebound members. They are often isolated and alone. Family members are conflicted on whether to visit or risk exposing their loved ones to the coronavirus. Please keep them in your prayers and consider calling or sending cards or letters to let them know you are thinking of them. If you need an address or phone number, call the church office or pick up a directory at the church.

Adult Bible Classes
Sunday School - 9:20 am

The first Friday in March is World Day of Prayer. God wants us to pray to Him everyday. So start today and never stop!

Write the words from the scrambled jigsaw pieces onto the blank puzzle to discover when Psalm 55:17 (KJV) says we should pray.

Answer: Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.
