LWML PRAYER SERVICE THURSDAY, MAY 6, 2021 at 1:30 PM

HE PRAYED WITH THEM

He (Paul) knelt down and prayed with them all (Acts 20:36 b) is the scripture our Prayer Service is based on. We invite all members of Trinity

Not able to join us in person? Will you please take time at 1:30 on May 6th and spend some time in prayer? May 6th is also National Day of Prayer; we are blessed to have this opportunity to hold each other up in prayer every day, but especially on this day.

Mission Project: LWML Mites

MITE SUNDAY-May 2nd: The first Sunday of each month the Mite box will be available for you to bring your Mites. (suggestion put your coin in a zip lock bag - keep your mite box).

Mite Offerings Update

May brings many things, and one of them at our church currently is Confirmation Sunday! We join in celebration with Christian, Dalton, Danica, Lela, Mason, and Trevor on this special day, and pray for God's guidance over the reminder of their lives. Please join us for cake outside between services to celebrate. What do you remember about your Confirmation day? Take a moment and share with our confirmands about what Confirmation meant to you, and how thinking about your Baptism and Confirmation have sustained your faith with the help of the Holy Spirit - and they may even ask if you still remember your Confirmation verse!

School Happenings

Preschool & K-8

Trinity Family,
Friday, May 28th is when the school routine comes to an end, at least for the 2020-2021 school year, AKA the LAST DAY OF SCHOOL. This has been a school year like none other. We have had so much to celebrate and rejoice, mixed in with a healthy dose of challenges. The June Newsletter will capture more of those highlights and reflections. In the meantime, we are down to our last month of school, and we are not out of the woods, yet. With some modifications, May will be a busy, fun-filled month. Through the grace of God, we look forward to finishing the school year strong.

MAP
Measure of Academic Progress

May 10-14, our K-8 students are taking their 3rd and final round of MAP (Measure of Academic Progress) tests for this school year. This is a new instrument that was implemented to better monitor student growth, and to recognize areas of improvement. It has been received well by the teachers and we look forward to using this as an instrument of evaluation in the future. We are proud of the hard work put in by our students and staff, and to observe the "fruit from our labor."

At Trinity, we work hard...WE PLAY HARD. Instead of a traditional field day this year, we will be ROLLING with something new: "EVERYTHING ON WHEELS." Instead of our traditional field day events which would have presented hurdle after hurdle in staying compliant with COVID policies and procedures, we are planning to spend a fun-filled day outside. Students are invited to bring bicycles, roller skates, or anything on wheels. We are looking forward to a WHEELIE fun day!

Throughout the last week of school, take a moment to look towards the Trinity campus. Students will be flying high with KITES. They are invited to bring kites on Monday, and throughout the week we will look to seize any opportunity to fly them outside, weather permitting. We look forward to soaring our way through the remaining part of the school year and on into summer.

Sent to Serve,
Director Gwen Marshall
Principal Kyle Erickson

Note from the Editor: I was talking on the phone with a friend and we were laughing as we both admitted to being in the “age of forgetfulness”. My desk is papered with little notes of things I need to remember. Why is it I can’t remember what I wore to work yesterday, but I can remember scenes from my childhood? And why do these memories randomly pop into my mind? Like the time my exasperated mother uttered the words no child wants to hear-”Wait till your dad gets home!” I don’t remember (conveniently) what I did to deserve those words, but I knew that I had crossed a line and there was no going back. I would have to face my dad. Mom always handled the day to day discipline of us girls. Dad was only brought in on extreme cases. I did not want to face my dad, but when he came home from the field, my mom marched me to meet him and said, ‘Tell your dad what you did.’ I told him the truth. There was no lying, it was not tolerated. Regardless of the consequences for my behavior, the worst punishment was the look of disappoint on my dad’s tired face. Sometimes I don’t want to face my Heavenly Father and confess my sins. I wonder if face shows His disappoint when I sin. I went to tell my mom I was sorry, but my heart wasn’t in it and she knew. Mom asked me what I was sorry for and I shrugged. She asked why I had said I was sorry if I didn’t know what I was sorry for. I told her dad had told me I needed to. She pulled me close and told me that if it wasn’t coming from my heart, if it wasn’t sincere, then saying I am sorry didn’t mean anything, they were empty words. I would come to realize that I had taken my parents’ love and forgiveness for granted. It’s a challenge sometimes to keep my relationships real. That applies to my Heavenly Father also. He wants a real relationship with me. He wants me to be truthful. He wants me to repent of my sins with sincerity and my whole heart. He wants to have real conversations with me and for me to hear His voice and His words. He is always there. May your relationship with God be from your heart. May you seek His forgiveness with sincerity. May your heart burst with joy as you give thanks and praise to Him.

“Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.” Revelation 3:20

How wonderful would be if Jesus knocked on my door tonight, joined me for supper, and we could talk for hours. Someday. That will be the best day ever!
