FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

WOW! What a beautiful weekend Trinity celebrated on October 9-10. Great to see so many alumni sharing the evening on Saturday night. A great recognition of Larry Whitney and his ministry in this place and in the church. It was wonderful to see the connections being made to alumni ties, to their time in this ministry, during the 75 years the school has been a part of your ministry. I got to meet so many and listen to stories.

The service of celebration on Sunday was a tremendous witness to God at work in the lives of His people in this place. I had to stop singing a couple of times to take in the power of the singing of God's saints. It was a moving morning for me, I thanked God for the opportunity to be a part of such a great event.

To the committee, to those who contributed in any way I want to express my thanks. Having attended a couple of the planning meetings, I got to witness first-hand, God's people at work. It was special to have an emcee who had attended the school. All praise to God for all the labor, sharing, contributions that made for a tremendous weekend.

By the time this goes out we will have had our first seminar on "Spiritual Leadership." The staff will have been a part of the Rocky Mountain District Pastors and Teachers Conference in Breckenridge. The Sunday morning Bible Study on "Go and Be Reconciled" will be better than half way completed. It is great to see so many participating in God's Word together and discussing the power of the cross at work in the lives of God's people. There is so much going on.

Having said all of that, the next couple of months will be filled as well. Reformation falls on the day that Luther nailed his thesis on the church door in Wittenberg. Because that event happened on the eve of All Saints Day, our celebration of All Saints" will not happen until the first Sunday in November. Because it is a festival day Holy Communion will be a part of our worship services. During our worship we will remember those who have died in the Lord over the past year. Please send names you would like remembered to Debi in the office by November 2 so they can be included. The elders have approved celebrating Holy Communion on all festival days during the year. On the second Sunday Vicar Luke Kunze is scheduled to preach for the first time at Trinity. Trinity will have a Thanksgiving Service this year. It will be on November 24 at 6:00 p.m. This is the eve of Thanksgiving. Come worship together in thanksgiving to God on this evening, then join with family and friends to celebrate this national holiday. On the last Sunday in November, we begin a new church year as it is the first Sunday in Advent. In the next newsletter we will publish the entire Advent and Christmas schedule.

This fall has seen numerous members of the staff with a variety of sickness. Yes, some have even experienced bouts of Covid. May God provide healing and strength to all. Yet, there are so many reasons for us to give thanks and praise for all that God is doing in the lives of His people in this place.

"We are all beggars."

These were the last written words of Martin Luther, found in German on a piece of paper on a bedside table. What a reminder that EVERYTHING we have, from daily bread all the way up to our everlasting life through Jesus Christ and His redeeming work on the cross, is because of absolutely nothing we've done.

As we celebrate the holiday of Thanksgiving this month, being grateful is at the forefront of our minds. Let our Thanksgiving meal – and every meal, and every day – point us forward to that day when we will praise our God with all of the "angels and archangels and all the company of heaven."

Coming up on the schedule:

1st and 3rd Sundays – Youth Group, 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Beginning in March, youth 6th grade and older will meet regularly for some time in God's Word, along with fun and fellowship! See you in the youth room (church basement) on Sunday nights!

CLUB

Trinity family,

As we near the Thanksgiving holiday, we have so many blessings to be thankful for. Since God IS In All Things, it is a long list of blessings. We thank the Lord for Trinity Lutheran Church and School and the ways we are making a difference in the lives of so many families.

October was BUSY!!!! What blessings there were for all of the activities! It was a month for making fond and lasting memories as we celebrated 75 years of Christian education at Trinity. More fond memories were made with our middle school's trip to LVR, the Quilters auction, hot-lunch start-up, the church workers conference in Breckenridge, parent-teacher conferences and the Fall Festival.

We also started the annual Butter Braids fundraiser in October. If Butter Braids are a must-have at your house, we need your order turned in to the office by November 3. The main order will be delivered to Trinity on November 12, then sellers will begin delivering to those of you who ordered.

Our energy is now devoted to preparing for the annual Veterans' Day celebration. We are planning a simple service in the sanctuary at 11:00 a.m. on November 11. The service will follow a format similar to our weekly chapel and last about 30 minutes. The school children will be singing a couple songs and we will be doing the traditional medley of armed forces songs. Please invite any of your friends who are currently in the armed forces or who have served in the past. Refreshments will be served after the service for our guests.

The annual Scholarship campaign draws to a close in early November. As I write this in mid-October, we are about halfway to our goal. We are so appreciative to all of the congregation members who regularly and faithfully contribute to this fund to help families with elementary school tuition. This fund accepts donations year-round, so you can make monthly or quarterly contributions. Even if we reach our goal, extra contributions can help get a jump start on our 2022 drive.

Elementary classes dismiss early on Friday, November 19. Families are invited to join us for lunch that day for an early Thanksgiving Feast. There are no elementary or preschool classes the week of November 22, but childcare will be available Monday-Wednesday.

When we return from Thanksgiving break, our energy will be devoted to the school Christmas program preparations. We are looking forward to being able to present the Christmas story this year, after missing last year due to COVID, and invite you to come worship with the children and their families on Wednesday, December 15. The morning service is at 10:00 a.m. The evening service will be at 6:30 p.m.

Praise God from whom all blessing flow, for He is In All Things!

In All Things,

Director Gwen Marshall

Principal Kyle Erickson

Scholarship Fundraising Campaign!

With thanks and praise to God, we are nearing the end of another successful campaign for raising funds for scholarships. On Sunday, November 14th, Principal Kyle Erickson will give his "State of the School" presentation between services and bring this year's campaign to completion. What a blessing it was to witness how this school has endured thorough the years at the 75th Anniversary Celebration. God has truly walked with us all along the way, touching hearts and changing lives. Prayerfully consider being a part of that legacy by giving to the Scholarship Fund. Your donation will go to help families pay tuition fees for the safe, nurturing, and Christ-centered education they want for their children. That tuition money comes back to the church as tuition payments, but the important part is it makes it possible for a child to be here to hear about Jesus and what He has done for us. He laid down His life on the cross to pay for our sins, that we may have eternal life with Him in heaven. If the timing is not right for you right now, think of giving a donation at the end of the fiscal year for tax purposes or in the spring with your tax refund monies. We will always give thanks and welcome your gift as we look forward to the next 75 years of Christian education at Trinity Lutheran School.

TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Note from the Editor: "Forgive and forget". I can't count the number of times my mom told me that when I would complain to her about some fiasco my younger sisters had perpetrated on me or my possessions. Forgiving is hard enough, but forgetting is even harder. How do I know if I have truly forgiven someone for a hurt they have caused? How do I forget? Memories can be one of the most precious gifts that God gives to us when we are separated from those that we love. How can I remember those good times and forget the bad? Don't they intertwine with each other? Recently I was hurt, actually I was devastated. Other factors compounded that pain, so I wanted to examine it and find a way to relieve it. I chewed on it, replayed it in my mind, wrestled with it to find a cure. How was I going to move forward? How was this going to be resolved. While talking to a friend, the light bulb came on, it starts with forgiveness. (I love God's timing. He sends me what I need.) I replayed the hurt one more time and this time at specific intervals, I said, I forgive you. The pain lessened, but not the memory. My friend shared an idea. I tried it, and it worked for me. I closed my eyes and imagined I had a box on the table in front of me. Across the table sat Jesus with eyes that looked into my soul. He instructed me to put the pain in the box. I did. He told me to put all my pain into the box. Then He told me to put all my fear in there as well. I was sure that the box would burst at the seams, but it didn't. There was more room, so I kept putting more in. Then He told me to close the lid up tight and give it to Him. As soon as Jesus touched it, it was gone. When I come across something I missed, I get another box and add my pain, my worries, my doubts, anything that comes between Jesus and me. What do you have that you need to put in a box and give to Jesus? May you find that your box is never too full or heavy for Jesus to handle.

"Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you." 1 Peter 5:6-7

Thanksgiving is a time to be thankful for all the good things in our lives. God is pleased when we are thankful because He knows that we remember the wonderful things He does for us every day.

Directions: Use the picture clues below to figure out the verse about being thankful. The minus (-) sign means take out the letter(s). The plus sign (+) means to add the letter(s).

Answer: "Give thanks to the LORD for he is good."
