Note from the Editor: September makes me think of fall, a time when nature begins to wind down and prepare for its winter slumber. One thing I have always enjoyed is a relaxing drive up the mountains where I can admire the brilliant colors of the aspen trees against the rugged mountain backdrop that is God's canvas. The world speeds by at such a rate that life can be a blur. Work, family, friends, hobbies can demand that I rush here and there. I am not the only one, everyone is rushing everywhere. Perhaps that is why I am drawn to those mountain drives, to roads that make me slow down as they wind between the mountains and river. I have driven those roads so often that even now when I am reluctant to make the trek, I can close my eyes and see the colors, the terrain, the blue sky, and the landmarks along the way to my favorite secluded destination. What a precious gift God has given me, being able to remember His Words from the Bible whenever they are needed for comfort or strength and for the memories of all the blessings He has given me, so that they will always be near. Memories involve all the senses not just sight, but smell, taste, sound and touch. I think they can also include feelings like how it feels to know that Jesus has His loving arms wrapped around me. It's an important part of my daily life to take that moment to freeze time, close my eyes to the worldly blur, remember that God is always with me. That He is right beside me with His arm around me and even though from time to time I cannot put my memories into words to share, the memories of Jesus walking beside me are always there. May your memories remind you of the many blessings God has given you. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places," Ephesians 1:3

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

When this newsletter reaches the membership, school will be back in session, confirmation will be beginning for another year, Sunday School will be kicking off, a men's retreat is in the works and plans for worship in the fall will be moving forward. Hard to be thinking about Reformation, All Saints Day, Advent and Christmas, yet, none of this just happens. There is a need for discussions, planning, and ideas to be shared. There are considerations for the church and school, so they compliment one another as we do ministry. Over the past six months the leadership has been working together for structure that assists us to do ministry. A great deal of meetings, discussions, rewriting, have taken place. Following the January workshop on being a healthy congregation, energy was generated, and people saw value in refining the structure in place here at Trinity. This is a congregational process, while committees were formed and they have worked in certain areas, the congregation needs to better understand where all of this is going.

The theme for the new school year is "Making Disciples." The theme verse is the great commission of the church. This ought to be the theme of everything we do. This theme is not just for the school, but for ministry together as the people of God. Word and sacrament ministry guides us to touch lives with the message of the Gospel, recognizing the importance of confession and forgiveness in all that we do. Every individual born into this world has been given life through the creator. Yet, our sinful nature struggles with the reality of God's grace for His fallen creation. In every conflict of life, there are issues of the heart. It can be easy to point to evil in the world, it is difficult to address in a God pleasing way because of our self-centered nature. Thus, the cross of Christ ought to be at the center of our ministry together. What Christ accomplished on the cross, addresses all the issues of life because Christ took sin, death, and the power of the Devil, defeating them so that we might have life in His name.

Yes, two years have gone by, for some of you there is impatience, why so long to call a new pastor? The process offered may seem unreasonable. Truth is, this time has been an opportunity to consider where you have been, where you are and think about where you want to go under the direction of God working through the Holy Spirit. Leadership has been working hard, even though it may seem like little is happening. Issues have been addressed, discussions and concerns are being worked on. While leadership has been taking the lead, the next step involves the entire membership. A healthy congregation discusses together what are our expectations as we call a shepherd to lead us. It is important that the entire congregation has a say. As individual members you have expectations, some of those are very important, but so does every other member. When all members are asked to be a part, you will find those expectations that rise to the top for all of you. You will be able to evaluate that some of your expectations are realistic, others may be unrealistic. Every congregation wants the perfect pastor, yet, in calling you call men, who are not perfect, they have a variety of gifts, and they serve the same God, but each one will come with flaws. That is why ministry together is important. Rejoice in the strengths of the man you call and encourage and support him in areas where his gifts are not as strong. Remember it is the same Lord, the same Spirit, the same God who works through all in the congregation to touch lives with the message of the Gospel, the forgiveness that covers all of you, and the grace God richly pours out. Ministry is imperfect people sharing the Good News of Christ with imperfect people, St Paul in 2 Corinthians 5:14-15 (ESV) says: "¹⁴For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; ¹⁵and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised." Later he states: "¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. ¹⁸All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation." St. Paul then concludes this section with: "²⁰Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God." As you begin moving forward to call a shepherd consider the importance of all of God's people, so that with one voice, you may call a man of God to be your pastor, praying for him, supporting him, and walking with him making disciples, sharing the ministry of reconciliation.

School Happenings

Preschool & K-8

Trinity Brothers and Sisters,

I'm writing this the day before the 2022-23 school year begins. Usually, our newsletter talks about school happenings, but I feel there is more that I don't know than I do know right now. We will have at least one new-to-Trinity student in each classroom. Since I teach the littlest ones, almost all of my class is new. Over my decades of teaching I've learned that no matter how prepared you are, the dynamics of that group of children may cause you to toss those plans out the window.

At our prayer retreat yesterday, Kyle talked about how we don't know what this year will be. In August 2019, we would never have thought that the school would shut down in March for a pandemic. When we were stocking up on masks and gloves and cleaning supplies to start up again in August 2020, we didn't foresee that the thing we needed to buy in bulk was baptismal cards! We witnessed 11 members of the school community come to the font during that school year. Last fall, we would never have foreseen that over the course of 15 months three fourths of the staff would experience the death of a loved one. What will 2022-23 bring . . .

But in these experiences, there are things we COULD count on. I loved last year's theme of "In All Things". In life and death, mourning and celebration, prosperity and struggles our God never forsakes us and uses all circumstances to work for our good and to draw us closer to Him. He also used these experiences to strengthen our staff as a group.

I love this year's theme, too, as it gets to the heart of who we are and why Trinity is here. We are making disciples for life. We do this by proclaiming God's Word at every opportunity. We are sowing the seed recklessly and abundantly like the farmer in the parable. Not all seed will take root – the Holy Spirit sees to that part of the work – and often it takes a while for the seed to grow and we don't get to witness it. One of the things Lutheran schools do well is to share God's Word throughout the school day and provide witnesses to live out the faith in our classroom staff.

"For life" is important in a couple ways. We want the faith that develops in the lives of these children and their families to continue to grow throughout their lifetime. That growing faith may lead some of our students to consider a career as a pastor or teacher in a Lutheran congregation and school – and we need a new generation of those. I also look at the "for life" from the angle of many of our families do not know Jesus and are not living the abundant life He promised to His followers NOW. We share God's Word to have them experience that abundant life on this earth and forever in heaven.

Again, we ask for your prayers and thank you for your support and encouragement.

Making Disciples,

Director Gwen Marshall
Principal Kyle Erickson

"To everything... turn, turn, turn... there is a season... turn, turn, turn... and a time for every purpose under heaven..."

Welcome to September! I am so thankful for our amazing God having created autumn! No matter what the temperature says, I am always ready to celebrate fall – my favorite season – on the first of September! It's a time of transition, as we say good-bye to summer and hotter weather, and move back into a school-year routine (and sweaters and scarves and hot beverages and football and...) We thank God for His many blessings as we enjoy fall, and the beginning of a new Sunday School and Confirmation year!

One new change beginning this fall: Youth group (two Sunday evenings per month) will now be focused on high school youth and their fellowship. We will have meetings for middle school youth (6th-8th grades) here and there, and eventually settle in to a regular meeting time for them as well. It is a blessing for me to be able to interact with this young people and watch how God is working in their lives! If you are ever interested in helping with youth activities, please let me know!

Also on the schedule:

1st and 3rd Sundays – Youth Group (7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.)

Beginning in March, youth 12th grade and older will meet regularly for some time in God's Word, along with fun and fellowship! See you in the youth room (church basement) on Sunday nights!

Confirmation Class

Wednesday, September 7: Confirmation Begins! 3:45 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.

We meet in the Youth Room in the church basement on Wednesdays! Thank you for your continued prayers for our young people as they continue to grow in faith and fellowship with one another!

Potentially planning a fall retreat for the class, details coming.

Friday, September 9: Club 345, After School – 8:00 p.m.

Hello, 3rd-5th graders! Let's hang out! Bring $5 for pizza and get ready for fun! Drop off at the church basement or leave kids here after school, and pick up at the school at 8:00!

CLUB

Sunday, September 11: Sunday School Rally Day:

Thank you to our Sunday School Superintendent, Amanda Thuener, and to all of our Sunday School teachers! We look forward to a fun morning of spending time in the Word and with friends!

Friday, October 7, 4:00 – 6:30: Middle School Youth Putt-Putt Outing

Hello there, 6th-8th graders! Let's play some golf, with pizza outside afterwards. Please plan to drop kids off and pick them up at the Family Fun Plex, unless you stay to help chaperone. Please bring $5 to help cover expenses.

Saturday, October 29: Reformation Walk at the Fall Festival

Trinity Lutheran School will be having its annual Fall Festival, complete with games and food (check the school announcements for details), AND we're adding something special: Come and step back 500 years into the life of Martin Luther! 10 interactive, family-friendly stations will make the events of the Reformation come to life. Learn some German words with Martin's teacher, Frau Ursula Cotta, and how to make pretzels with a monk at the monastery – but beware of John Tetzel; he might try to see you indulgences! (Accepting volunteers for all areas of this event!)

Angela Erickson,
Director of Christian Education

"My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." 2 Corinthians 12:9

Rev. Dr. Thomas Egger, president of Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri will be our keynote speaker.

Our theme is Speaking to the Heart with a theme verse John 7:38

Location: Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 2100 Wadsworth Blvd., Lakewood CO

The day begins at 9:00 A.M. with a continental breakfast followed by our keynote speaker. Lunch is provided at noon with a medical speaker, entertainment and closing devotion ending at 4:15 P.M. Congregations in Rocky Mountain District and past seminar participants will receive a mailing with the program and registration materials in early August.
